Says Attorney General Palmer, If Reports of Size of Profits On Coal Prove True

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 25—President Wilson's cabinet was expected to reach a decision today on the wage controversy between the bituminous coal miners and operators that would send the miners back to work. Before entering the meeting Attorney General Palmer said if reports of the operators' profits are true it is unlikely Fuel Administrator Garfield will permit an increased coal price. He intimated that any wage advance would have to come out of the operators' profits. The operators and miners spent two hours in conference today without breaking the deadlock as to wages.

Mexican failure to promptly answer has apparently created an unfavorable impression in official circles.

At the conclusion of the cabinet meeting Secretary Lansing said no conclusion had been reached. Both the Jenkins case and general conditions in the Southern Republic were discussed, Lansing said.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

Frankfort, Ky., November 25—While Daniel Schittinger, of this city, discharged from the navy after two years' service was standing on the wharf at Riga, Russia, a woman rushed through the crowd and asked him to mail a letter for her when he returned to America.

He never had seen the woman before and she had not seen him, the cruiser on which he had entered Riga had arrived at the port only an hour before the incident.

When Schittinger looked at the letter he found that it was addressed to "L. Rosenstein, Frankfort, Ky., U. S. A." and he told the woman through an interpreter that he was a resident of Frankfort.

The woman proved to be the sister of Mrs. Wolf Rosenstein, of this city, and Schittinger delivered the letter to her to-day.

LOCAL OFFICIALS MUST ENFORCE DRY LAWS

(By Associated Press)

Shrewsberry wired to his wife here Monday, after he had been arrested at Key West, that if she would telegraph the officers there to release him that he would immediately return home. ## TREE HALL OF FAME

Will Include Many Grand Old Giants Of The Forests

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 25—A "Hall of Fame for Trees" has been inaugurated by the American Forestry Association for the recognition of famous trees and the location of the largest shade tree in the United States.

An elm at Huntington, Indiana, long has been regarded as the largest shade tree in the country. This claim of course excludes the Redwoods of California. Now comes Dumont Kennedy of Crawfordsville, Indiana, with a picture of a tree on his property and the suggestion that it is larger than the tree at Huntington. This tree has a spread of 99 feet while the Huntington Elm has a spread of only 75 feet. A tree at Farmington, Mass., also makes claim to being the largest.

Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry Association says:

"We want a complete list of famous trees now. There is the Liberty Tree on the campus of St. John's College at Annapolis under which a treaty with the Indians was signed in 1652. The experts tell us this tree is close to 800 years old. We all know of the William Penn Treaty Tree, beneath which Washington took command of the continental army. At Oberlin, O., is the elm on the corner of the campus under which was the first log house in which Oberlin College was founded. The American Forestry Association has listed many famous trees but it wants the list complete. If there is a famous tree in your town the Association wants to know about it."

REFORM SCHOOL TERM PLACED OVER LAD

Threw Ammonia Into Playmate's Face But Says He Didn't Know Its Danger

Wallace Smith, 13-year-old son of J. W. Smith, who lives near the ice factory, was given a sentence of a year in the reform school at Greendale, by County Judge W. K. Price in Juvenile Court Tuesday morning. The sentence was suspended, however, upon good behavior of the little fellow. Prof. J. A. Kunkle was appointed special probation officer for the lad, and will report to the court his actions in the future.

The Smith youngster threw some ammonia into the eyes of 8-year-old Clark Kearns, son of G. C. Kearns. He said that he did it playfully, not realizing that it might put out the sight of the little fellow. The Smith boy had a bottle of the liquid and was making some other small boys smell it, and threw it on young Kearns when he refused. The Smith boy is said to be "smart as a tack" but inclined to be incorrigible. He will have a hard row before him, if Prof. Kunkle has a bad report to make on him to the Judge at any time.

PAINT LICK MAN BEST SHOT IN PHILIPPINES

J. B. Floyd, formerly of Paint Lick, and who, by the way, is back home on a visit to his old home here and friends in the vicinity, won the trap-shooting championship of the Philippine Islands this year, where he has been located for several years.

The Manila Club is one of the finest gun clubs in the world—finest in every respect. It has a wonderful club, magnificent shooting grounds, and is a progressive organization. Floyd, like all Kentuckians, learned a lot about firearms in his youth, and did considerable game shooting before going to Manila, but never did anything wonderful at the trap. He visited the Manila Club at the time of the championship without a gun. He was invited to participate, borrowed a gun, and broke 100 out of 200 targets—and the championship was his.

ONEIDA TO RECEIVE $50,000 OF BIG FUND

Baptist 75 Million Campaign Plans To Take Care Of Mountain School Doing A Great Work

The 75 Million Dollar Campaign which is to be launched by Southern Baptists Nov. 30 to Dec. 7 includes all the missionary educational and benevolent interests fostered by the Southern Baptist Convention. The 75 million dollars will be distributed as follows: Foreign Missions, $20,000,000; Home Missions, $12,000,000; Christian Education, $12,000,000; State Missions, $11,000,000; Hospitals, $2,125,000; National Memorial, $175,000.

In Kentucky $1,400,000 will be devoted to educational purposes. Among institutions to be benefited by the 75 Million Dollar Campaign is Oneida Institute. Many people in Richmond as well as throughout the state and nation are interested in this splendid little mountain school. The friends of the school will be glad to know that the school is again properly related to the Educational Society of the state so as to come in for her share of the proceeds of this campaign. Oneida Institute for a time lost her standing with the Educational Society because of an oversight the institution failed to nominate trustees and send in their names to be ratified at the annual meeting of the Educational Society. Then during the war so many of the young men were taken away that the school was not able to maintain a high school. Now these defects have all been remedied and the matter finally adjusted.

Rev. O. Olin Green, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Oneida Institute. He and Mr. Joseph LeCompte, of Lexington, who is also a trustee, made a trip to Oneida to investigate conditions and to get Oneida lined up with the Kentucky Educational Society. They also made a trip to Louisville for a conference with the Society the last of October. The matter was finally decided at a recent meeting of the General Association at Georgetown at which meeting it was decided that Oneida should receive $50,000 from the 75 Million Dollar Campaign.

The institution was founded by Rev. J. A. Burns, 20 years ago and has had a remarkable growth. Mr. Burns has done a great work and is greatly loved by the people of the mountain. Mr. Burns is now lecturing in the west but still remains president. He has made many friends for the school in various parts of the country. Mr. T. L. Adams is the Associate President and acts as the executive head of the school in Mr. Burns' absence. He is a fine business man and runs the school on a good business basis. The school is full and is doing a most excellent work.

However, there are not sufficient funds to keep up the school. Many of the boys and girls are poor and can pay little or nothing for their schooling. It has always been Mr. Burns' desire to make a place for every girl or boy who wanted an education. But many have to be turned away because there is not room for them. The First Baptist church has always been greatly interested in the school. The ladies of the church are sending a box of clothing there this week.

The school needs a large endowment so that it may be able to keep up expenses without falling behind. At present the expenses are about $1,500 per month while the income from all sources is less than $1,000 per month. This works a hardship on the institution and prevents its proper development and usefulness. The school greatly needs a new dormitory for the boys as the boy's dormitory was burned a few years ago. The $50,000 which Oneida expects to receive from the 75 Million Dollar Campaign will greatly help this struggling little mountain school but it is not "a drop in the bucket" when compared with the real needs of the school.

BOGGS PLANS STATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM

State Road Commissioner Thinks He Has Better Plan Inter-County Seat System

State Highway Commissioner Joe Boggs, who is making a splendid record as head of the State's Road Department, spent Sunday at his home here. Mr. Boggs has many plans for improvements of the state's highway system.

Substitution for the present inter-county seat highways of a system of state highways, designated by the General Assembly, on which all state and federal funds are to be applied until it is finished is advocated by Boggs. He thinks very county should be included in the system, lateral roads should wait on completion of this project in each county for state funds; most of the money for this system should be supplied by the State and Federal Governments and maintenance left entirely in the hands of the state.

This system as compared to the inter-county seat system, would reduce the mileage of State-aid roads from 6,000 to 2,500 miles and afford a system more advantageous to the people. It also would produce continuity of construction in place of the patch work now being done, he said.

Under the present arrangement the state is undertaking reconstruction of 6,000 miles of highway, a project estimated to cost $120,000,000, at an expenditure rate of $2,000,000 annually—a sixty years' programme.

He would eliminate the complications arising from the facts that Fiscal Courts have the initiative in laying out projects and State Road Department all have a hand in road work.

He would have surveying, planning, contracting, payment of estimates, supervision and acceptance of work done under direction of the State Road Department.

To pay for the work Boggs suggests a road tax of 20 cents instead of 3 cents, and in lieu of ad valorem taxes a horsepower tax of 75 cents, the horsepower be put on pleasure motor vehicles and additional tax of $1 the hundredweight up to three tons on trucks and $2 the hundredweight for the excess over three tons.

He also suggests a moderate assessment of land on each side of every State-aid project, such as has been successfully tried in other States. His idea embraces two zones, the first zone running back one mile and the second zone another mile. The assessment in the first zone would be $1 the acre for land valued at $50 or under, $1.50 up to $100 the acre; $2 up to $150 the acre and $4 the acre for land above that value. In the second zone the assessment would be 50 cents an acre up to $50 the acre; $1 up to $100 the acre; $1.50 up to $150 the acre, and $2 the acre for land above that value.

Mr. Boggs believes these sources would produce a road revenue of $7,000,000 annually, which would be increased to $9,000,000 with Federal Aid, enough to construct the primary system of roads in seven or eight years.

His estimate is:
20-cent tax ..... $4,000,000
Automobile tax ..... 2,000,000
Land tax ..... 1,000,000
Federal aid ..... 2,000,000

His basis of apportionment of the State road fund would be the relative mileage of the State road system in each county. He thinks appointment of county road engineers should be approved by the State Road Department and he should be resident engineer for all State aid projects, receiving 10 per cent, of his salary from the State.
